Bonus Share Plan (The 'Plan')

Whitefield Ltd ('Whitefield') is pleased to offer shareholders holding fully paid ordinary shares in Whitefield the opportunity to participate in the company's Bonus Share Plan. The Plan provides those shareholders with a convenient means of increasing their holding by the receipt of additional fully paid ordinary shares as an alternative to receiving dividends. Full details of the Plan's operations are contained in the accompanying Terms and Conditions.

Allotment of shares and allotment share price

Under the Plan, a participating shareholder will be allotted Shares having an equivalent market value to the amount of the dividend entitlement foregone. Shares will be allotted at a price determined by reference to the weighted average market price of all Whitefield shares traded on the Australian Stock Exchange during the five trading days from and including the date Whitefield's shares are first quoted "ex" for the relevant dividend. The directors may determine that this amount be discounted by up to a maximum of 5%. The discount may be between 0% and 5% and calculated in accordance with the discount policy as announced by the Company on the ASX from time to time.

Tax treatment of Bonus Shares

Under Australian Tax Legislation, shares allotted under the Plan should not be deemed to be a dividend and in most circumstances should not be subject to Australian income tax at the time of allotment. For Australian income tax purposes, shares issued under the plan will affect the tax cost and taxable gain or loss on the subsequent disposal of any shares allotted under the Plan and the participating shares in relation to which the Bonus Shares were allotted.

As shares allotted under the Plan are not deemed to be a dividend under Australian Tax Legislation, shares participating in the plan will not receive any franking credits or LIC Discount Capital Gains attached to the dividend that would otherwise have been received if the dividend entitlement was taken in cash or via the Dividend Reinvestment Plan.

For Australian income tax purposes, the Bonus Shares should be taken to have been acquired at the same time the participating shares were originally acquired.

Whitefield obtained a Class Ruling from the Australian Taxation Office to confirm the tax treatment of the Bonus Shares.

Whitefield takes no responsibility for the taxation liabilities of participants in the Plan and specific taxation advice should be obtained from a suitably qualified adviser. Whitefield does not warrant that participants in the plan will gain any taxation advantage by participating in the Plan and recommends shareholders obtain professional taxation advice.

Shares rank equally

Shares issued under the Plan rank equally with existing fully paid ordinary shares.

Bonus Share Plan and holding statements

A statement providing details of your participation in the Plan, and any bonus shares issued to you will be forwarded at the time of dividend payments. A holding statement, detailing any movements in your shareholding balance, will be issued at the end of the month in which the dividend is paid

No additional costs

Shares issued to you under the Plan are free of brokerage, commission and stamp duty costs. Whitefield pays the administrative costs associated with each issue.

Participation

All shareholders who hold fully paid ordinary shares and are resident in Australia or New Zealand can participate subject to any law and the constitution of Whitefield.

Overseas shareholders

The Plan is not offered to shareholders having a registered address outside Australia or New Zealand at this time.

Entitlement rounded to nearest whole number

Where the calculation of the entitlement results in an entitlement which includes a fraction of a share, that entitlement will be rounded up or down to the nearest whole share.

Participation is entirely optional

Participation is entirely optional. Shareholders may elect to join, vary their participation in, or withdraw from the Plan at any time.

Partial participation

Partial participation can occur by nominating the number of shares you wish to have participate in the Plan. Shareholders can also participate in the Company's Dividend Reinvestment Plan in relation to the balance of their shares not participating in the Bonus Share Plan. The dividend entitlement on any shares not participating in either the Bonus Share Plan or the Dividend Reinvestment Plan will be paid in cash.

Multiple shareholdings

Shareholders with multiple shareholdings will need to lodge a separate Application form for each shareholding registered under different names or each shareholding bearing different shareholder reference numbers or holder identification numbers.
